

Ethical dilemmas are situations when there are two or more mutually exclusive choices, none of which is ideal. In this interactive workshop we will discuss how our personal values may affect our decisions. We will practice with several challenging ethical dilemmas with no easy answers. Setting boundaries and self-disclosure will also be discussed.