International Overdose Awareness Day
prevention and remembrance

Wednesday, August 31 | 1 to 6 PM

Eastern Family Resource Center | 9100 Franklin Square Drive, Suite 322 | Baltimore 21237

Attend an Open House hosted by the Baltimore County Department of Health in observance of International Overdose Awareness Day. During this event, the public will have an opportunity to:

- Receive one-on-one overdose response training and certification, plus a kit containing naloxone.
- Meet with a substance use counselor to ask questions about anything related to substance use, how to access treatment, or how to help a loved one.
- Talk with a peer recovery specialist, who is a person in long-term recovery, to learn about how they can help someone who is having substance related problems.

Are you or a loved one using opioids (prescription pain medications or heroin)?

Help is available!

International Overdose Awareness Day is a global event held on August 31 each year and aims to raise awareness of overdose and reduce the stigma of a drug-related death. It also acknowledges the grief felt by families and friends remembering those who have met with death or permanent injury as a result of drug overdose.
